A Message from the Dean, Students' Affairs

Dear Students,

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the Department of Students' Affairs at Nnamdi Azikiwe University. Our office is committed to ensuring that your time in the University is not only academically rewarding but also personally fulfilling and socially enriching.

At Students' Affairs, we recognize that education goes beyond the classroom. It is about building character, developing leadership capacity, nurturing talents, and preparing you to become responsible and impactful members of the society. We are dedicated to creating a supportive environment where every student feels heard, valued, and empowered to succeed.

Our focus is on providing efficient and responsive services that address students' welfare, accommodation, discipline, guidance, and engagement. We encourage you to take full advantage of the various platforms available, students' organizations, clubs, leadership opportunities, and support systems, to enhance your overall university experience.

As you journey through this institution, I urge you to uphold the values of discipline, integrity, respect, and excellence. Your success is a shared responsibility, and we are here to guide and support you every step of the way.

My office remains open to your ideas, concerns, and contributions as we work together to build a vibrant and inclusive student community.

I wish you a productive and fulfilling academic experience.

Professor Kingsley Ikechukwu Ubaoji
Dean for Students' Affairs
